

TICKETS

An Army of Lovers

a new play by R. Eric Thomas directed by Kash Goins

Proscenium Theatre at The Drake

Produced by Azuka Theatre & Simpatico Theatre

Join us to celebrate LGBTQ+ Elders Day at the Thursday, May 16th, 6:30pm performance of R. Eric Thomas' An Army of Lovers.

Azuka Theatre's first LGBTQ+ Affinity Night is a selected performance for members of the LGBTQ+ community to collectively experience An Army of Lovers. After the show, everyone will be invited to a curated space in the lobby to enjoy music, refreshments, and a chance to mingle.

About the show:

An aging queer activist is invited to the sleek, enclosed campus of a global communications company to give a speech for their first Pride celebration. She does not come in peace. An Army of Lovers is a play about radical acts of existence, corporate culture as an oxymoron, and the freedom to be public.

PAY WHAT YOU DECIDE!

Make your no-cost reservation now, Pay What You Decide after you see the show!

SAFETY PLAN

Learn more about our policies for health & safety during our performances.

Approximate Running Time:
90 minutes, no intermission

Age Recommendation:
13+

Content Warning:
This production contains mature language